ORGANIZATION OF THE PRESBYTERY.

In accordance with the direction of the General Assembly of 1870, the Synod of Philadelphia met in the Spring Garden Church of Philadelphia, on June 21, 1870, for the constitution of the Presbyteries in the territory assigned to the Synod. The Presbytery of Chester was organized by the following action :

"The Presbytery of Chester is hereby constituted to consist of the ministers and churches in the counties of Chester and Delaware, to meet in the Spring Garden Church, at 8.30 o'clock A. M., June 23, 1870; the Rev. B. B. Hotchkiss, or, in his absence, the oldest minister present, to preside until a Moderator is chosen; and the Presbytery of Chester is hereby declared to be the legal successor of the Presbytery of New Castle; and as such, entitled to the possession and enjoyment of all the rights and franchises and liable to the performance of all the duties of that Presbytery."

The General Assembly, during its sessions at Chicago, May, 1871, reversed that part of the above action of the Synod of Philadelphia which made the Presbytery of Chester "the legal successor of the Presbytery of New Castle," and declared the newly constituted Presbytery of New Castle to be the rightful successor of the original Presbytery of New Castle.

The boundary line of the Presbytery was enlarged by an Overture adopted by Presbytery and sent to Synod, October 18, 1872, as follows :

"Resolved, That the Synod of Philadelphia be overtured to transfer from the Presbytery of Philadelphia North to this Presbytery so much territory as will include the town of Bryn Mawr, in the county of Montgomery."

The Overture was favorably reported on by the Synod's Committee on Bills and Overtures, and, after being discussed, it was adopted, "and the boundaries of the Presbyteries of Chester and Philadelphia North were so changed as to include in the Presbytery of Chester all that territory in the township of Lower Merion, Montgomery county, which lies east of the Roberts road and south of the Gulf road, in said township, and which includes the town of Bryn Mawr" (see Minutes of Synod of 1872, pp. 14, 18).

THE MINISTERS

of the Presbytery thus organized numbered thirty-five, in the order of their ordination, as follows :

John N. C. Grier, D.D.,*	Lorenzo Westcott,†
Alexander G. Morrison,*	William F. P. Noble,*
John M. Dickey, D.D.,*	Joseph Smith,*
Beriah B. Hotchkin,*	Gilbert T. Woodhull,*
James M. Davis,*	Orr Lawson,
Robert P. DuBois,*	Joseph W. Porter,†
James W. Dale,*	John S. Gilmore,†
Hugh S. Dickson, D.D.,†	Isaac N. Rendall,
Ezra E. Adams, D.D.,*	John J. Pomeroy,†
Marcus E. Cross,*	William A. Ferguson,

Ten of the thirty-five original ministers of the Presbytery were, prior to the reunion, connected with New School Presbyteries and twenty-five with Old School Presbyteries. Twenty of the twenty-five were members of the Old School Presbytery of New Castle. Twenty-nine of the original thirty-five ministers of the Presbytery are dead. Three of the thirty-five are now on our Roll. Only one however, has been continuously on the Roll from the organization of the Presbytery until the present time, namely, Isaac N. Rendall, D.D.,

* Died while connected with the Presbytery of Chester.

† Died after being dismissed from the Presbytery of Chester.

THE ORIGINAL CHURCHES.

The churches originally enrolled in the Presbytery numbered twenty-nine, in the order of their organization, as follows :

Prior to the organization of this Presbytery, twelve of the original churches were under the care of the Old School Presbytery of New Castle, namely, Ashmun, Coatesville, Doe Run, Downingtown Central, Fagg's Manor, Forks of Brandywine, Kennett Square, New London, Nottingham, Oxford, Penningtonville and Upper Octorara. Nine were under the care of the New School Third Presbytery of Philadelphia, namely, Chester City, Darby, First, Darby Borough, East Whiteland, Fairview, Marple, Trinity of Reeseville (now Berwyn), Unionville and West Chester, First. Three were under the care of the Old School Presbytery of Philadelphia Central, namely, Charlestown, Great Valley and Phoenixville. Four were under the care of the Old School Presbytery of Philadelphia, namely, Chester, First, Media, Middletown and Ridley. Honeybrook was under the care of the Old School Presbytery of Donegal (now Westminster).

FIRST MEETING.

At the first meeting of the Presbytery, which was held in the Spring Garden Church of Philadelphia, in connection with the first meeting of the Synod, on Thursday morning, June 23, 1870, at 8.30 o'clock, fifteen ministers and two ruling elders were present. The elders were David Shelmire, of Downingtown, and P. Frazer Smith, Esq., of West Chester. Rev. Beriah B. Hotchkin, by appointment of the Synod, presided until a Moderator was chosen. The honor of being the first elected Moderator of the Presbytery fell upon the Rev. James W. Dale, D.D. At the same meeting other officers of the Presbytery were elected, as follows: Rev. James Roberts, who was the Stated Clerk of the Presbytery of New Castle, was made the Stated Clerk of the Presbytery of Chester; Rev. Alexander W. Sproull was elected Permanent Clerk and Rev. William E. Moore was chosen Treasurer. The only other important items of business transacted by this first meeting of this Presbytery, held nearly thirty-four years ago, was the appointment of a committee to prepare Standing Rules for its guidance and the appointment of a Commission to organize a new church at Wayne.

GROWTH OF THE PRESBYTERY.

Since its organization twenty-four new churches have been organized as follows.

A COMPLETE ROLL OF ALL THE MINISTERS

Who have been Connected With the Presbytery, in the Order of Their Enrollment, From its Organization to the Present Time.

In the first column the familiar * is used to indicate that the brother is dead, and that, at the time of his death, he was a member of the Presbytery of Chester. The † announces the death of the minister after whose name it is placed, but it is here to indicate also that he died after having been dismissed to another body.

The same signs, it will be noticed, are used in the seventh column. There the * indicates removal from us by death; and the † indicates removal from us by letter of dismission to some other body.

STANDING RULES

OF THE

PRESBYTERY OF CHESTER.

September 28, 1904.

I. MEETINGS.

1. There shall be six regular meetings of the Presbytery annually, four stated and two adjourned meetings. Presbytery shall meet on the second Tuesday of April and adjourn to meet at Lincoln University on the Thursday after the third Tuesday of April. Presbytery shall meet on the Tuesday in the later part of September nearest the full moon, and adjourn to meet at Lincoln University on the first Tuesday of November. There shall be one-day meetings on the last Tuesdays of June and January. It shall be understood that no business, other than that connected with the Committee on Education, or with the reception, examination, installation, dissolution and dismissal of candidates, licentiates and ministers, shall be transacted at the meetings at Lincoln University, except such matters as may be placed on the docket at the stated meetings of April and September.

2. Special or Pro re nata meetings may be called as provided for in the Form of Government, Chap. X, Sec. 10. The notification for such meeting shall be sent out by the Stated Clerk to all the ministers and Sessions of vacant churches; and the signers of the request shall pay to the Stated Clerk the sum of five dollars before the notification is sent out. Sessions of churches at which the June and January meetings are held may arrange for popular services in the evening at their pleasure. The stated meetings of April and September only shall be opened with a sermon. Sessions will be expected to arrange the business of their churches in accordance with this schedule of meetings and to avoid, except in extraordinary cases, the calling of special meetings of the Presbytery.

II. OFFICERS.

The officers of the Presbytery shall be a Moderator, Stated Clerk, Permanent Clerk, Temporary Clerk and Treasurer.

III. TERM OF OFFICE.

The Moderator and Temporary Clerk shall be chosen at the April and September Stated Meetings, and shall serve for six months. The Stated Clerk, the Permanent Clerk and the Treasurer shall be elected every five years, at the September Stated Meeting.

IV. DUTIES OF OFFICERS.

1. It shall be the duty of the Moderator to exercise all the functions of the presiding officer of a deliberative body, as specified in Chap. XIX of the Form of Government.

2. It shall be the duty of the Stated Clerk : (a) To give at least two weeks' notice of all the regular meetings of the Presbytery through the religious press ; (b) to prepare and furnish to the Moderator a docket of all the business to come before the Presbytery ; (c) to furnish for the use of the Presbytery the Digest of the General Assembly and the Minutes of the last Assembly and Synod ; (d) to keep the roll of the Standing Committees of the Presbytery, and to report to each Stated Meeting the vacancies therein ; (e) to supply the church Sessions with blanks for the Narrative and the Statistical Report to the General Assembly, at least one month before the Spring Stated Meeting ; (f) to prepare and send to the General Assembly the annual Statistical Report and such other papers as may be ordered by the Presbytery ; (g) to receive the reports required by the Synod from the various Committees and forward the same to that body ; (h) to engross the minutes of the Presbytery in the form of a permanent record ; (i) to publish such proceedings of the various meetings as may be of general interest ;

(j) to act as the custodian of the records and papers of the Presbytery ; (k) to be its official correspondent, unless otherwise ordered ; and (l) to notify the members of Presbytery of the duties assigned to them.

3. The duty of the Permanent Clerk shall be : (a) To make a fair and accurate record of the transactions of the Presbytery at each meeting, and to deliver the same, carefully arranged and engrossed, to the Stated Clerk at the close of the meeting ; (b) to file all papers that have been presented to the body, in the order in which they have been read, and properly labeled ; and (c) to keep them in convenient form for reference until delivered to the Stated Clerk.

4. The duty of the Temporary Clerk shall be to assist the Permanent Clerk, by whom he shall be nominated.

5. The duty of the Treasurer shall be : (a) To receive all Presbyterial funds ; (b) to disburse the same, on the order of the Stated Clerk as directed by the Presbytery or by the Standing Rules ; and (c) to present to Presbytery a report of his receipts and disbursements at its Fall Stated Meeting.

V. ASSESSMENTS.

The Treasurer and the Stated and Permanent Clerks shall be a Permanent Committee on Assessments, whose duty it shall be : (a) to report to Presbytery, at its Fall Meeting, an estimate of the amount needed to meet the expenses of the Presbytery, including the assessments of the General Assembly and of the Synod, and the necessary railroad expenses of the Commissioners of the Presbytery to the Synod ; and (b) to assess the same upon the churches in proportion to their memberships.

VI. DEVOTIONAL EXERCISES.

The first half-hour of the opening session and of each morning session of the Stated Meetings of the Presbytery shall be spent in devotional exercises, and each session shall be opened and closed with prayer.

VII. GENERAL RULES.

The General Rules for Judicatories, as appended to the Constitution by the General Assembly are adopted by this Presbytery.

VIII. PERMANENT COMMITTEES.

A Permanent Committee is one which has a continued duty concerning a permanent subject, and continues during the pleasure of the Presbytery.

1. The Presbytery shall appoint Permanent Committees on the causes represented by the Boards and Committees of the General Assembly and of the Synod, also of other interests of the Church, whose duty it shall be : (a) to keep themselves fully informed as to the condition and operations of the special cause entrusted to them ; and (b) to give such information and suggest such plans of effort as may secure the active co-operation of all our ministers and churches in the furtherance of these objects.

2. All communications from the Boards and Committees of the General Assembly and of the Synod, and all applications to them, shall be referred to the appropriate Committee. All correspondence between the Presbytery and the said Boards or Committees shall be carried on by the Permanent Committee on said Board or Committee, through its Chairman or Clerk.

3. The Permanent Committees shall consist of five ministers and three ruling elders, except the Committees on Examinations, which shall consist of three ministers, and the Committee on Synodical Missions, which shall consist of eleven ministers and five ruling elders, and a quorum of the latter for the transaction of business shall be the same as a quorum of the Presbytery.

IX. DUTIES OF THE PERMANENT COMMITTEES.

1. Committee on Business. All Memorials, Overtures, Complaints, and other papers requiring the attention of the Presbytery, shall be first considered and reported by this Committee. This Committee shall examine the Minutes of the General Assembly and of the Synod and report all matters requiring the attention or action of the Presbytery ; and the Stated and Permanent Clerks shall be ex officio members of this Committee.

2. The Committee on Synodical Missions, which shall include Sustentation, Outlook, Vacant Churches and Supplies, shall have the supervision of the entire field of the Presbytery, with reference to the work of evangelization, the organization of new churches and of securing funds for the work of Sustentation. This Committee (a) shall have the care of all the vacant churches and of temporary supplies within the bounds of the Presbytery ; (b) shall act as a medium of communication between unemployed ministers and vacant churches ; (c) shall consider and report to Presbytery all applications from churches for aid from the Synod's Permanent Committee on Synodical Sustentation, according to the rules governing such applications ; (d) shall have authority in the interim of Presbytery to apply for aid to the Committee on Synodical Sustentation for needy churches, and to grant leave to ministers, not members of this Presbytery, to labor within its bounds until the next regular meeting ; and (e) shall report all its acts to each Stated Meeting of the Presbytery.

3. The Committee on Home Missions shall have under their care, (a) the interests of the Board of Home Missions ; (b) shall co-operate with the Board in giving all the churches information of the vast and growing field and arousing their interest ; and (c) in securing liberal offerings every year to this cause. This Committee shall report at the Regular Spring Meeting.

4. The Committee on Foreign Missions shall give all diligence (a) to cultivate a missionary spirit among the people of our congregations by co-operating with the Board of Foreign Missions and the Missionary Societies within our own bounds in the spreading of missionary literature and information ; and (b) to secure regular contributions, at least annually, from each of our churches. This Committee shall report at the Fall Stated Meeting.

5. The Committee on Education shall (a) exercise a pastoral care over the candidates for the ministry under the care of the Presbytery ; (b) hold correspondence with them ; (c) receive reports of their standing and progress from their instructors and annually communicate the same to the Presbytery ; (d) assign the written parts of trial to candidates for licensure or ordination ; and (e) in case of urgent necessity demanding action before Presbytery meets in regular session, recommend candidates, already under the care of Presbytery, for aid to the Board. It shall be in order for this Committee to report at any Regular Meeting.

6. The Committee on Publication and Sabbath-school Work shall (a) gather information in regard to the plans, aims and work of that Board ; (b) collect, as far as possible, accurate and reliable statistics concerning the Sabbath-school work within the bounds of the Presbytery ; (c) encourage the establishment of Sabbath-schools in destitute places ; and (d) report the results of its labors to the June Stated Meeting.

7. The Committee on Church Erection shall (a) receive all applications from congregations desiring aid from the Board of Church Erection ; (b) carefully examine into the same ; (c) recommend to the Presbytery such amount as it may determine to be necessary ; (d) give all proper encouragement and aid to the erection of manses as well as church edifices, where they do not exist ; and (e) report to Presbytery at its June Stated Meeting.

8. The Committee on Ministerial Relief shall (a) carefully consider all applications of aged and disabled ministers and their needy widows and children ; (b) recommend to the Presbytery such amounts of money as, in its judgment, may be necessary ; and (c) report to Presbytery at its June Stated Meeting.

9. The Committee on Freedmen shall (a) gather and present to the Presbytery such facts as may be of interest in regard to the colored people of the country, together with their educational and religious necessities ; and (b) present the same to the Presbytery at its Fall Stated Meeting.

10. The Committee on Aid for Colleges and Academies shall (a) examine the reports of the Board of Aid for Colleges and Academies ; (b) make note of its progress and of the literary institutions under its fostering care ; and (c) report the same, together with such facts in regard to the necessities, claims and encouragements of this work as may be of interest, to Presbytery, at its Fall Stated Meeting.

11. The Committee on Systematic Beneficence shall (a) make an annual survey of the benevolence of the churches within our bounds ; (b) prepare such a summary of the contributions of the churches connected with the Presbytery as shall enable it to see what is being done for the Boards of the Church ; (c) suggest any means which, in their judgment, will increase the liberality of the churches ; and (d) report to Presbytery at its Fall Stated Meeting.

12. The Committee on Temperance shall (a) keep a watchful eye on all movements connected with the cause of Temperance ; (b) report to Presbytery such action as it may deem wise for the Presbytery to take for the suppression of the liquor traffic and the furtherance of Temperance ; and (c) report to Presbytery at its January Stated Meeting.

13. The Committee on Sabbath Observance shall (a) watch all movements for and against the proper observance of the Sabbath ; and (b) report the same, with such action as may be deemed best for the Presbytery to take, in order to secure the preservation and perpetuation of this divine institution to the January Stated Meeting.

14. The Committee on Young People's Societies shall (a) have in charge the interests of the various organizations of young people ; and (b) report to Presbytery thereon at its January Stated Meeting.

15. The Historical Committee shall procure a book and record therein such items of interest as the following : (a) An account of church organizations and dissolutions ; (b) ordination, enrollment and installation of ministers, dissolution of pastoral relations and dismissal of ministers to other bodies ; (c) biographical sketches of such members as may die while members of this Presbytery ; (d) such other historical information as may be calculated, in their judgment or in that of the Presbytery, to throw light on the history of the Church in this locality ; (e) a compact history of Presbyterianism within our bounds for the current year, including revivals of religion, the origin and progress of literary institutions, great moral and religious movements, removals by death from the ministry or eldership, and (f) whatever else may be essential to a complete record. The report shall be presented to Presbytery, before being entered in the book, at its January Stated Meeting.

16. The Committee on Vacancies in the Permanent Committees, consisting of the Moderator, the Stated and the Permanent Clerks, shall nominate to the Presbytery, at each Stated Meeting, such members of the body as, in their judgment, are best qualified to fill any vacancies that may exist in any of the above-named Committees.

X. STANDING COMMITTEES.

Standing Committees are such as have a temporary duty to a standing item of business. They are discharged by the action of Presbytery on their final report. The following shall be appointed :

1. ARRANGEMENTS AND DEVOTIONAL EXERCISES.—To consist of the Session of the church in which the Presbytery meets. This Committee shall make all needful arrangements for the entertainment of the members of the Presbytery, its hours of sessions, devotional exercises and popular meetings, subject to the approval of the Presbytery.

2. JUDICIAL.—To be appointed when needed, and to consist of three ministers and two ruling elders, to which shall be referred all papers of a judicial character.

3. BILLS AND OVERTURES.—To consist of three ministers and two ruling elders, to whom shall be referred all overtures, memorials and references, other than judicial, sent to Presbytery.

4. RECORDS OF SESSIONS.—I. Sessional records shall be examined by a Standing Committee of Presbytery composed of six ministers and six ruling elders, with the assistance of more in each class in case of temporary need.

II. This Committee shall be appointed by the Moderator with consent of Presbytery as follows: Ministers annually at the Fall Meeting to serve for three years, except that at the first appointment two shall be appointed for one year, two for two years and two for three years. Ruling elders shall be appointed at each Stated Meeting of Presbytery whereat sessional records are to be examined, to serve until their successors are appointed; additional men shall be appointed pro tem. at any meeting on request of the Standing Committee.

III. The Constitution of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, in the latest edition approved by the General Assembly, shall be the Committee's standard for the examination of Sessional Records.

IV. In addition to noting exceptions the Committee shall considerably seek to stimulate the practice by sessions of keeping a fair record of their proceedings correctly recorded, comprehensive, accurate and neat.

V. Before the close of the meeting at which Sessional Records are submitted the Committee shall report to Presbytery its findings in each case, and shall suitably inscribe upon every copy the action of Presbytery relating thereto, in order that the Moderator may conveniently add his signature in attestation thereof.

VI. The standing members may adopt regulations for the performance of the Committee's duties, subject to the approval of Presbytery.

5. AUDITORS.—To consist of three ruling elders, to be appointed at the Fall Stated Meeting, whose duty it shall be (a) to examine the Treasurer's report and vouchers and (b) make written report thereon to Presbytery.

6. NARRATIVE.—To consist of one minister and one ruling elder as principals and one minister and one ruling elder as alternates. This Committee shall be appointed at the Fall Stated Meeting and shall serve for one year. Its duty shall be (a) to prepare for the April Stated Meeting a Narrative for the General Assembly, based on the Narratives of the churches, as provided for in Rule XIV; (b) to report to the June Stated Meeting such additional matter as may be deemed necessary to make a complete Narrative for the Synod.

7. LEAVE OF ABSENCE.—To consist of two ministers and one ruling elder. All communications in regard to the absence of members of the Presbytery shall be referred to this Committee, who shall (a) make record thereof; (b) hear the case of all members who find it necessary to leave the body before its final adjournment and act thereon; and (c) make a full and written report at the close of the final session of the Presbytery.

8. MINUTES OF GENERAL ASSEMBLY.—To consist of the Commissioners to the General Assembly, who shall report to Presbytery at its Fall Stated Meeting.

9. MINUTES OF SYNOD.—To consist of the Commissioners to the Synod, who shall report to Presbytery at its April Stated Meeting.

XI. COMMITTEES ON EXAMINATION.

There shall be a Committee appointed for the examination of candidates for the ministry, for licensure and ordination on each of the following parts of trial :

1. Experimental religion and motives for seeking the office of the ministry.

2. Languages.

3. Arts, sciences and philosophy.

4. Theology.

5. Ecclesiastical history.

6. Sacraments.

7. Church government.

8. English Bible.

XII. CANDIDATES AND THEIR EXAMINATIONS.

1. Candidates for the ministry, as well as licentiates under the care of the Presbytery, shall report annually, through the Chairman of the Permanent Committee on Education, to the Presbytery.

2. The written parts of trial assigned to candidates for the ministry, except the sermon, shall be referred to the joint Committee on Languages and Arts and Sciences for examination. Examinations in languages, arts, sciences and philosophy shall be conducted before the respective Committees on these branches, and the other examinations, unless otherwise ordered, before the Presbytery.

XII. COMMISSIONERS.

1. On the afternoon of the first day of the April Stated Meeting, the Commissioners to the General Assembly shall be elected. They shall report to the Presbytery, in person or in writing, at its Fall Stated Meeting.

2. The delegates to the Synod shall be elected on the afternoon of the first day of the Fall Stated Meeting, and shall report to Presbytery, in person or in writing, at its April Stated Meeting. The Presbytery shall pay the expenses of its Commissioners only to the extent of the lowest railroad fare to and from the place of meeting, plus one dollar en route in case of additional expenses.

3. For the purpose of the election of delegates to Synod, an alphabetical roll of the Presbytery shall be prepared. The said roll shall consist of the names of ministers who are engaged in ministerial work within our own bounds and have been members of the Presbytery at least one year. The first six names or such ratio as shall at any time exist shall be principals, and the second six alternates, and so on down the roll until this roll shall have been exhausted. Any alternate who shall take the place of a principal shall be regarded as having filled his own term. When the roll is exhausted a new roll shall be made of Presbytery as it shall then consist. The same plan shall be followed for elder delegates, taking one elder from a church or from the two churches of a joint pastorate on the alphabetical roll of churches. Whenever the interests of Presbytery or considerations of courtesy shall make it desirable to send any special delegates, nothing in this plan shall militate against such special selection.

XIV. CHURCH SESSIONS.

1. When called for, at the Fall Stated Meeting, each church Session shall present its records for review to the Committee appointed by the Presbytery for the purpose.

2. Each church Session shall prepare the narrative of the state of religion within its bounds, on the blank sent out by the Stated Clerk, and forward the same to the Committee on Narrative, at least two weeks before the April Stated Meeting, and, when there is additional matter to be added, two weeks before the Fall Stated Meeting of the Presbytery.

3. Each church Session shall promptly fill the various columns in the blank statistical report sent out by the Stated Clerk, and return the same to him, at least one week before the April Stated Meeting of the Presbytery.

XV. VACANT CHURCHES.

1. Whenever a church becomes vacant it falls under the immediate care of the Committee on Synodical Missions, and so continues until brought regularly under the charge of an individual pastor; and the Committee shall proceed immediately to take such order in its behalf as its circumstances may require.

2. The appointment of a minister of the Presbytery as the Moderator of the Session of a vacant church shall in no case be omitted. Said Moderator may be nominated by the Session.

3. The Session of a vacant church may ask leave of the Presbytery to supply its own pulpit; and when said leave is obtained it shall, unless renewed, expire at the next Stated Meeting. In the absence of such leave the Session shall, in general, apply for supplies for its pulpit to the Committee on Synodical Missions.

4. The Sessions of vacant churches may properly apply for the aid of the Presbytery, through the Committee on Synodical Missions, in obtaining candidates for the pastorate, and they should by all means do it when the vacancy has been of long continuance.

5. No vacant church shall open its pulpit to a stranger as a candidate, and especially not to one not in our ecclesiastical connection, without consultation with the Committee on Synodical Missions.

6. When a church has been long vacant, the Presbytery shall visit it, by a Committee, for the purpose of inquiry concerning its welfare and prospects, and of making such suggestions and giving such counsel as the case may require.

7. If it become known to Presbytery that dangerous difficulties exist in any vacant church, which require its interposition, it shall appoint a commission, with the full power of the Presbytery, to adopt whatever measures may be required for the peace, purity and prosperity of the church.

XVI. AMENDMENTS.

Any of these Standing Rules may be suspended, at any meeting, by a two-thirds vote; or may be amended or rescinded by a vote of two-thirds of the members present at any Stated Meeting, provided that notice of such intended change has been given at a previous Stated Meeting.
